

Remarks:

In the Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment, the Examiner noted an apparent discrepancy between the listed claims and the claims from the amendment of January 9, 2009. Applicants have corrected the noted defects.

CONCLUSION

It is submitted that all of the claims now in the application are allowable. Applicants respectfully request consideration of the application and claims and its early allowance. If the Examiner believes that the prosecution of the application would be facilitated by a telephonic interview, Applicants invite the Examiner to contact the undersigned at the number given below.

Applicants respectfully request that a timely Notice of Allowance be issued in this application.

Respectfully submitted,

Date: September 10, 2009
